

Global Strategy Group

Mumbai, 15-16 December 2006

Agenda

Friday, 15 December
13:30-15:30	Lunch and session one Tour de table What are the 1-2 most significant developments since the beginning of the year? What are their implications for the next 2-3 years?
15:45-17:00	Session two What does a humbled US mean for geopolitical stability? Major risks and prospects over the next 2 years
17:15-18:30	Session three Is India for real? What kind of economic trajectory should we expect over the next decade?
20:00-22:00	Dinner and session four Assessing the mounting crisis between Europe and its Muslim minorities: What risks, what implications?
Saturday, 16 December
8:30-10:00	Session six From US economic uncertainties to a global slowdown? Assessing a changed economic outlook
10:15-11:45	Session seven A disintegrating Iraq: What spillover, with what regional impact?
12:00-13:15	Session eight What kind of world powers will China and India become? Assessing some initial clues
13.15-14.30	Closing lunch