

Global Strategy Group

26-28 March, 2010, The Boulders, Carefree, AZ

Agenda

Friday, 26 March
12:00-14:30	Meet and Greet Lunch
14:30-15:45	Session one Tour de table: What has been the most significant development of the last 6 months that will have an impact over the next 12 months?
15:45-17:15	Session two Is Europe consigned to a grim outlook for the next few years?
17:15-17:45	Break
17:45-19:15	Session three The new BRIC+ constellation: how is it beginning to re-shape global investments, trade and business flows?
19:15-19:45	Drinks
19:45-21:30	Session four: Dinner Mexico: blood at the door steps... what's next?

Saturday, 27 March
9:00-10:30	Session five The bad news about the crisis being over is that it is not!
10:30-11:00	Break
11:00-12:15	Session six The Iran conundrum: what are the realistic options, what implications for the business environment?
12:30-14:00	Session seven: lunch What are the 2-3 technological developments that will impact the business environment in 3 to 5 years?
14:00-15:15	Session eight What remains of Obama's ability to deliver on his agenda? What does that mean for the course of domestic and foreign US policy?
15:30-17:00	Session nine The dawn of the new geopolitical architecture?

17:00-17:30	Break
17:30-19:00	Session ten What will go up, what will go down over the next twelve months? A look at some key parameters in the economic and geopolitical landscape: systemic risk, prospects for climate change agreement, tensions in the Middle East, the dollar and the euro...
19:30-20:00	Drinks and dinner